A special thanks to our outstanding volunteers of the month:

- Sandra Dotolo who along with helping regularly in Ms. Clark's class, she has also stepped up to read with our 5th graders!! She is making a big difference in our classrooms every week and our students every day!!
- Susan Mulligan has been volunteering in the office and library every week and is a welcome presence giving the gift of her time and positive energy.

Blue Paw High Five to :

John Koehler, Julia David, Kelli Oliver and Ginger Fletcher for giving their time in the afternoons this entire quarter to help our 5th graders improve their reading skills!

April is Military child month. #purpleupday

On April 13th, everyone is invited to wear purple to support our military children and their families.

On Wednesday, April 25th at 8:30 am, LPES service members and their spouses are invited to come in for coffee and donuts and a short presentation by their children in the library.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Recognizing our Linkhorn Lions in Action:

This is a new program, recognizing and awarding LPES Students weekly. Teachers recognize students exhibiting outstanding behavior for being Respectful, Responsible, and Safe by completing a Lions in Action slip describing behavior in narrative form. The student is recognized on morning announcements with the AP reading the narrative provided by the teacher. Students receives the handwritten recognition to take home.

This week our teachers would like to recognize the following LPES Students for exhibiting outstanding behavior in the categories of Respectful, Responsible and/or Safe:

- GraceLyne Neaves
- Skyler Drye
- Brady Lafler
- Janessa Acevedo

Your Pie Pizza at Hilltop- Attendance Initiative.

Those students with perfect attendance through the month of March will be eligible to be entered a drawing for a FREE Family Dinner. A winning family from each grade level will receive a visit from the owner of Your Pie Pizza at Hilltop and LPES administration... Think of it now- Mrs. Sessoms at your door with pizza!

Papa John's 4.0 Program
